EXCISE (21)

November 1, 1962

Soviet and Cuban Media

USIA Internal. Press coverage light on October 31 and devoted principally to third country tributes to wise and courageous Soviet decisions. However, Pravda reports five Cuban demands and notes support of these by peace-loving peoples. Further notes that tension over Cuba not wholly dispelled and United States aggressive acts against Cuba continue.

Pravda (October 31) Soviet actions respect to recent events distance policy by emphasizing secure universal peace. Short-sighted eastern politicians should not construe this as sign of weakness. Castro's five demands have support of the forces of peace. Soviet Union still with Cuba and does not decline responsibility for giving Cuba assistance. United States should, therefore, restrain its irresponsible actions.

Cuban Internal. (October 31) Radio commentators describe U. S. talks useful as establishing McCuban link and more exactly defining Cuban position. Mikoyan welcomed as old friend. Soviet 'observers' reported in press and.
